Regarding: Senate

Message:

Upon reviewing the proposed Senate map, it is clearly gerrymandering at its worst. Districts should be clearly defined in a geographical way that makes sense for the Senator representing that district.

If you are so worried about incumbents losing their jobs, then you should probably stop passing legislation that is intent on killing the citizens of Texas. Currently you are imposing on the healthcare of over half of your constituents and allowing people to carry lethal firearms without any training. No wonder you're worried.
