Message:

America is set up on the principle of one person, one vote, Where the voters pick their representatives. This map represents your attempt to pick the voters who will reelect you. If you are incapable of seeing how this is a threat to the very idea of democracy, you deserve to be voted out. 95% of the new citizens in our state are Hispanic or Black and this map takes away the only Black district and does not add a Hispanic district. I will continue to register and empower young Latinx and Black voters to vote because they are our future. And you will be in our past. Cheating like this will only work for a little while longer.
