Message:

Making the present voting districts permanent is untenable. They disenfranchise many people in Texas and are unfair to huge segments of our population. Which is exactly what you intend to do in some shady closed meeting. You may not give a damn right now, but someday the people of the state will realize who you are, the lies you have told, and your true characters. For your own sakes and political self preservation (which is all you care about), don't do this. It is unconscionable, but then you don't have consciences. Sincerely, Marcia Tibbets [REDACTED]
