Molly Wofford became the first Executive Director of the Texas Partnership for Out of School Time (TXPOST) in January 2012. Prior to this role, Ms. Wofford served as the Vice President of Statewide Initiatives for United Ways of Texas, where she led grant-funded efforts to address college readiness, financial stability and disaster recovery across the state of Texas. She also has experience in managing international exchange programs for youth, including the 4-H International Exchange Programs. Ms. Wofford holds an MBA from the University of Manchester in the UK and a B.A. in Spanish from the University of Texas at Austin.