Message:

The history of gerrymandering TX Districts is legendary and has become the basis of many spoofs on 'how not to...!'

It would be good to be known for sensible and fair district design. As a person who has handled ethics work at many TX State Agencies, I can definitively tell you all that your actions set the example that State Employees follow. Yes it's shockingly that adults are so influenced by leaders and by the culture created by them, but they are. Fairness in this process is the basis for how Texas will evolve into an honorable ethically-led State. It is not just about election cycles.
