The redistricting that occurs in Texas has been historically unfair, diluting my vote and resulting in comical district shapes. This gerrymandering leads to non-representation of constituents: regular people. Instead the powerful special interests and large corporations get their representation. This is highly immoral and does not follow the teachings of Jesus Christ.

When drawing these district lines, please consider the voices of regular everyday Texans. Do the right thing.