I believe we must have fair maps to make sure that we have the right resources in place that will benefit every community in the state and to make sure we choose people that will fight for us not to benefit one self we must redraw the maps that benefit the great texas state so we all will strive and grow as one Texas not just for ourselves.