My family was without power for sixty two hours during the winter storm. It is unacceptable that Texas was woefully unprepared for this winter storm. We need to either plug into the federal power grid or repair and weatherize ours.