I believe redistricting should be determined by our elected officials because you are accountable to the citizens of Texas. We elected you to represent us.
I do not think an Independent Panel or any means other than the officials the people of Texas have elected can accurately reflect our voice.
This is a very important process and needs to be done by our elected officials.

thank you