Affirm public info: I agree

Regarding: ALL

Message:
I would like to see districts drawn so that representatives can actually get to know their constituents and not just the donors. Know the lay of the land, be able to sit down and talk, travel to different towns and cities so that every point of view can be heard. Unreasonable? How about actually getting out of their offices and parties and listening.