Partisan politics must stop. Redistricting efforts should be fair and represent what we are trying to accomplish—communities of interest held together. The Nueces County area continues to look gerrymandered. Do the right thing. Listen to your constituents in this region and draw a fair map that recognizes all voters. Let all voters choose who they want to vote for, not politicians choosing their voters. Enough!