To whom it may concern,

I oppose the current redistricting plan as I feel it would split my community in half and will ultimately diminish a largely conservative population amongst more liberally aligned values. I, we, in my area would essentially have no vote if this plan is passed. This redistricting will strip the conservative population from having a voice amongst what I, and others in my area, feel are leftist leaning liberal politics. It seems as if the intent here is to split up conservatives and negate their vote and voice. I feel this is a blatant attempt by left-leaning republicans, elected largely in liberal populations, to undermine Godly and righteous conservative individuals who do not want to be commingled with a wholly liberal democratic voter base in Harris County. Leave us alone! We do not want your redistricting and meddling with our conservative voter representation!

Sincerely,

Steve Greco
