The attempt to remove the voting power of young people and people of color is transparent. Gerrymandering is cheating! It’s clear that the GOP is terrified of Texas’ growing diversity. Instead of adjusting their platform to make policy for ALL Texans, the Republican legislature is doing everything they can to solidify their unjust power for years to come.

We demand fair representation in our state legislature.