Message:

To the Texas Senate,

Please re-establish district lines to reflect municipal boundaries or other such logical marker. Gerrymandering only serves to play politics rather than to actually represent the voters of a given area. Establishing districts by county makes much more sense than the current arithmetic that is employed in an unexplainable manner to the average voter. We deserve to be represented by the people we elect, not who the voters living far away in a completely different environment elect. Be sensible and fair, not political.

Thank you,

Angela Baker
