Message:

We need to stop gerrymandering to just draw district lines to favor one party over the other. Representatives such as yourself (i.e, representing constituents) should actually listen to ALL people in your district, not just those you agree with, or not just those of your biggest donors. That's wrong. That's what's wrong with politics today. We are supposed to be a democracy, a representative government. Not just special interests. That's what the GOP has become. The party of the rich, elite, white people. It's disgusting. Most of Austin, much of El Paso and the rest of your district as it's currently drawn, have a large segment of Democrats. Keep it aligned with that. No more gerrymandering just to get the vote.
