Message:

I live in a small rural conservative County, Lee County TX. It is a very close knit community. Each little community within Lee County comes out and supports the other communities. There is an endless string of spaghetti dinners and Volunteer Fire Department fundraisers.

So the question is, as close knit as this county is, why are voting precincts 1, 2, 3, and 4 in a different US Congressional District than the rest of the county? It makes absolutely no logical sense.

This divides the community, all the voting precincts in Lee County should be in the same US Congressional District.
