Regarding: SBOE

Message:

The proposed SBOE map divides my school district, Round Rock ISD, into two SBOE districts. As a result, voters in RRISD would elect the same school-board members but not the same SBOE members. This community of interest should not be divided.

Houston ISD appears to have a similar problem.

Clearly, this map was drawn to dilute the votes of Democrats.

We need a nonpartisan SBOE map that keeps school districts together and doesn't pair rural districts with denser ones.
