Message:

Our local newspaper for Brazos County, Texas stating that Redistricting consideration is being given to splitting Bryan, Texas away from College Station for redistricting purposes.

Our community of BCS (Bryan-College Station) is a close knit community made up of A&M graduates and students. Any community concern that affects College Station also affects Bryan, and vice versa. Many in our community disagree adamantly against any redistricting that would in any way not include the entire Bryan and College Station area in the same district for Representation.
