Message:

I believe the changes being made to voting districts in Houston, Harris County, Texas are uncalled for and clearly not meant to be representative of the communities involved. Republicans do a disservice to the party by continuing to try to rule the people by way of gerrymandering. Minorities, the under served of this huge metropolis will find their way to the polls and in numbers enough to be heard and COUNTED. Embrace the future.

Signed, Old White Woman who can see the future; it is multiracial and chuckles at the folly of the old white men of yesteryear.
