Message:

I, Adel Harrison Brown, am a resident, Montgomery County, Texas, representing myself. I am sharing my concern for the proposed Texas redistricting plan and map gerrymandering. The 2020 Census shares the growth of people of color, but the map does not represent this. I believe gerrymandering and map manipulation is dividing our country even the more. I ask that serious reconsideration be given to gerrymandering of Texas maps. Drawing fair, competitive maps that represent all Texans would be a good place to start. I ask my legislators to follow the Voting Rights Act and not discriminate against people of color. Let us be One Texas! Thank you for receiving my written testimony. Humbly submitted, Adel Harrison Brown
