Message:

I live in Texas house district 133, and Texas Senate District 17 in Houston. I am writing to ask that the legislature use a committee of citizens, or a bipartisan commission, to draw Texas districts. Nonpartisan districting will be beneficial to all Texans because: -It will reflect the will of the majority -Candidates in gerrymandered districts feel more beholden to party leaders and their funders than they do to their constituents -Incumbents in gerrymandered areas start thinking of “their” district, instead of ‘we the people’s’ district. I believe that voters should select their representatives – elected officials should not select their voters. Thank you.
