Message:

I formally call on my senators to vote no on redistricting maps that are aimed to suppress the power of Democratic voters in our state. Texas is better than bending our knee to whatever president Trump requests of us. Have we already forgotten that his appointee for Secretary of DHS waited 72+ hours before allowing the desperately needed help and relief from FEMA after the floods in the Hill Country? It is absolutely repulsive and ridiculous to further push this agenda of silencing the voices of minority communities in our state. In a state that is already grossly gerrymandered, we are pushing for further gerrymandering? If we continue with actions such as these, we are asking for Blue states to redistrict in such a way that Republican representatives will never be elected again. The entire country is watching our actions in this moment. In a special session that was called to help deal with the devastation the Hill Country faced with the July 4th floods, we are shifting the focus to redistricting at the behest of the president. I have never been more disappointed in the Texas legislature, and that is saying a lot. Texas is better than this. Stop this nonsense and stand with your constituents, vote no to these terrible redistricting maps and suppressing the voices of your state.
