Message:

This redistricting push is wrong and you know it. Don't delude yourself that "it's just something political parties do when they're in power" or "Dems do it too", this one is different and you know it. Redistricting our state to satisfy the request of a President is letting the Federal government tell Texas what to do. When have we ever been okay with that?? Texas has never let allowed the he federal government to push us around and we should not start now. We are proudly independent and we need to guard that character as if our lives depend on it because they probably do. Don't let Trump dictate what we do in our state. We are TEXANS, not Trump's lapdogs!
