Regarding: Congressional

Message:

It is inappropriate for the TX legislature to be considering Redistricting the maps the majority Republicans chose for themselves just a few years ago to make the national Congressional districts even more lopsided and racially discriminating than they are now. Any efforts to do the bidding of the President of the United States over the actual real life and death business of the people of Texas should bring shame upon all who fall on their knees to his intimidation. You will look like a bunch of greedy toddlers who can't take your current advantages as an adequate win. Wanting more power isn't the same as earning it by being the people's choice. Shame on those who want to draw their way into more power rather than governing and legislating in ways that build up the people of this state.

Do the work of holding appropriate people accountable for the tragedy of flood warnings unheeded. Strengthen the state's systems for providing warning and timely guidance.

I urge you to denounce this restricting scheme for the big cheat that it is and get down to real business.
