Message:

Every 10 years, based on latest census information, Texas redraws its districts. This time, due to Trump's unpopular policies, he and other Republicans are worried about losing elections. The solution appears to be to change the rules and rig the elections going forward by doing a 5 year redistricting, which focuses on breaking up any democratic party strongholds. This is NOT democracy at work, but clearly rigging elections. PLEASE, regardless of the pressure Trump and Abbott bring to bear, do not sully the great State of Texas by approving some of the worst and most obviously gerrymandered maps in the history of the United States of America.
