Message:

I believe that the redistricting plan is breaking up communities and therefore denies representation among people who have shared concerns. This proposed redistricting will construct districts which do not reflect the communities found in the neighborhoods of Houston. The word community has always meant a group of people who live together and possess shared concerns. These proposed changes are so egregious that I believe multiple lawsuits will follow and cause multiple dollars to drain tax payer dollars.

The people of good conscience will speak to perceived injustice. In a democracy, the legislative branch is expected represent its citizens.
