Message:

I am writing to express my absolute objection to redistricting occurring at this time. It is clearly an effort to guarantee voter disenfranchisement, all at the behest of the president. This is unfair. It is corruption at the highest level. What does it say about the Republican party that they are so convinced of being challenged that they will do something so wrong in order to maintain power? If Republicans had confidence in their voters, they would not feel the need to be dishonest.

Sincerely,
