Message:

The only reason to attempt to redraw district maps mid-decade is because you want to prevent the people's will from being heard. There are already maps agreed upon to use until the next census. We Texans expect that our votes will count, and that these are the districts they'll count in. Gerrymandering so my vote or another Texan's vote doesn't count is un-American, un-democratic, and given you have no quorum illegal. Stop disrespecting and messing with Texans!
