Dear Texas Senators,

I am writing to express my concern regarding the newly proposed redistricting map. I strongly believe that this change could negatively impact fair representation for our communities. The goal of any redistricting process should be to ensure that every voter has an equal voice in our democracy. However, the new map risks diluting the influence of certain communities, potentially resulting in disproportionate and less equitable representation.

I urge you to reconsider this proposal and work toward a redistricting plan that truly reflects the diversity and needs of all Texans.

Thank you for your time and for considering the impact these decisions have on our community.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
