Message:

Your pathetic attempts at further gerrymandering us to hell and back are desperate and obvious. This attempt to redistrict is the result of your political and personal impotence, and a gross violation of the American democratic system. No one wants this, and those that do only seek to undermine the voices of the people for their own selfish and immoral purposes. We were literally taught how bad gerrymandering is in basic government classes in high school. Stop it. Go to therapy. You can't solve your self esteem issues by beating the populace into submission.
