Message:

Redistricting in and of itself is not a bad thing, what is a bad thing when weak, ineffective, “leaders” use redistricting to disenfranchise marginalized communities. If you are not willing to redistrict in a non partisan way and in a way that isn’t designed to disproportionately stifle the voices of black and brown voters then leave the maps as is. Know though, if you do gerrymander this state further I personally will do everything in my power to see a Republican not hold a statewide office in Texas ever again and I’ll make it my life’s mission to make the representatives who enable this kind of racial discrimination feel as unsafe and unwelcome in MY state as they will be making my friends and family feel by taking their right to representation away. The ball is in your court. You get to pick the future we all have and that includes your own future. Thank long and hard before you chose which side of history you want to stand on.
