Message:

This mid-decade "redistricting" is a blatant attempt by Republican politicians, led by Gov. Greg Abbott and at the behest of Donald Trump, to further gerrymander the already enormously gerrymandered Texas Congressional districts to improperly retain control by Republicans of the U.S. Congress. It is nothing more than a shameful power grab by desperate partisan political actors who realize their platform and policies are deeply unpopular among the American electorate and therefore their electoral prospects are very bleak if they don't rig the system in their favor. The Texas state Senate therefore has zero business playing any part in facilitating this redistricting.
