Message:

You are silencing the voices of our complex and diverse rules of thoughts, you are allowing for one vision and one vision only, You are only representing your own vision, ideals, and interests.

We are supposed use our shared experiences, beliefs, and ideals to shape our very foundations and advance together as a society.

Do we not live in the greatest country on earth? Wasn't it founded on a history of immigrants, and a distain for a government that doesn't care for it's populous? Why do we segregate ourselves again and again?

I plead for you to just have empathy, not to change your beliefs, but to look at every single one of us, and to allow just a hint of fairness. Please do not allow an unfair decision that would silence the voices of many. We must each give our minds in harmony, as equals instead of whatever it is were doing now.
