Message:

As a proud and concerned native Texan, I am very concerned regarding the potential redrawing of district lines. Gerrymandering will only make us Texans lose the bit of voice that we have left in the areas where we live. The past efforts to redraw lines in the name of fairness have resulted in favorable outcomes for conservative republican politicians. Instead of wasting time on this, your efforts could be better spent on more crucial changes. This can be in the form of bolstering public transit or actually working on legislation to help people living paycheck to paycheck. I hope the people whose duty is to represent me will continue to keep my and my fellow neighbor's voices in mind.
