Message:

You face a monumental decision: whether to advance the interests of democracy in Texas and uphold fair voting laws for all Texans or to do the political bidding of a minority group that hopes to use you to secure power disproportionate to their influence under a fair system of representation. The proposed redistricting maps are a clear violation of both secular law and moral law. I urge you to stand up for the people of Texas, all the people of Texas, and stand against this blatant power grab by a minority (even if you are part of that minority). Your actions can stand as a model for democratic leadership or ignite a war between states as they try to out gerrymander each other.

You know that these maps are unfair. You know that they are wrong.

Do the right thing for Texas and Texans.
