Message:

It is a disgrace that a blatantly partisan group of officials is once again attempting to contort our congressional map—already gerrymandered beyond recognition—into an even more racially biased tool for power retention. This farce masquerading as a redistricting process is nothing short of a calculated assault on democracy, orchestrated by leaders who clearly have no respect for fair elections or the people they claim to serve.

Let me be absolutely clear: what you are doing is the work of authoritarians. As this state sinks deeper into fascism, I have no expectation that my Republican representatives will lift a finger to defend our rights. You've proven, time and again, that your loyalty lies not with Texans but with power—no matter the cost.

While you manipulate districts behind closed doors, real Texans are being crushed by unaffordable housing, a failing education system, and the devastating consequences of climate inaction. And through it all, we're forced to watch those in charge smirk from safely gerrymandered seats, immune to accountability.

If you have even a shred of integrity left, create a competitive congressional map. A map where voters pick their leaders—not the other way around. This is the bare minimum for a functional democracy. But if your goal is to continue dragging Texas into a dark, undemocratic future, then at least have the decency to admit it.
