Regarding: Congressional

Message:
I'm opposed to redistricting.

My constitutional rights are important to me. And my upbringing taught me to be concerned about the rights of my fellow citizens.

The people of Texas have not called for redistricting. What the people of Texas want the legislature to focus on is recovering from flood disaster, access to health care, and education funding. I ask that the legislature spend time on those issues. Don't get distracted from the important work of representing the needs of your constituents!

The proposed redistricting map causes an even greater lack of representation of people of color in Texas. This map is racially discriminatory, even worse than the 2021 map. Also, the map is politically motivated to dilute the voice of the Democratic Party constituents. Texas should have districts drawn to represent the interests, values, opinion and beliefs of the people.

I oppose the proposed redistricting map.
