Message:

I am writing to register my opposition to the current redistricting effort being undertaken by the Republican Party. It is very concerning to me that President Trump thinks he should hold sway over Texas Congressional maps. This is a blatant and cynical overreach out of a desperate attempt to preserve power and it is absolutely unfair to many Texans, in particular those in minority communities. Our state representatives should focus their attention on work that makes life better for ALL Texans; perhaps then they wouldn't have to gerrymander to win elections.
