Hello, I am writing this comment today as a texas citizen opposed to the idea of redistricting texas. I believe this is a terrible and unfair decision because, we have more important things to worry about. Not to mention the fact that doing this will suppress the votes of the opposing parties, and put republican at an advantage. If this is seriously the goal of our senators. To strip the voices of Texans who pay taxes, work, and bust their ass to make ends meet? That just isn't fair and further shows that our representatives do not care about us citizen. I thought we the people held power. Instead we have billionaires and money hungry pedophiles running this government. We the people want our voice back!
