Message:

It's very disappointing that Governor Abbott and Republican lawmakers in Texas are trying to rig the district maps to favor Trump. It's shameful that this is the focus of the special session, rather than helping flood victims and addressing real issues that matter to Texans. But are we surprised? Not really. The attempts show the true desperation for republicans and conservatives; cheating in order to win. It's really embarrassing and sad. But Texans will not stand by and be silent while attempts are made to silence voter representation in Texas. We should all be fighting for fair maps as that is the foundation of democracy.
