Affirm public info: I agree

Regarding: Congressional

Message:

I absolutely reject the passing of HB 4.

What the representatives in this state are doing with our tax dollars for this is absolute bullshit. Instead of focusing on the myriad of things the people in this state need, you are debating a map that is already gerrymandered to begin with. Hearing Rep Hunter speaking about this at the opening was extremely infuriating. He explicitly stated this is 1) going to impact minority communities 2) approved the map created from the 2020 census & 3) is being done for political purposes (which he says is lawful). I do not understand the double standard. How do some of you sleep at night knowing the terror you have caused and continue to?

What makes you believe silencing voices different from your own is the “godly” thing to do? Is that not blatant discrimination? If not, then what is the definition of discrimination? I think every single person that votes for passing HB 4 should be fired by the people. If the members of Congress focused on making life better and more equitable for the people of this state, they wouldn't be wasting our tax dollars to find ways to keep that power. Their actions are pathetic, sad, and undemocratic.

Democracy dies when its power is hoarded by manipulation and behind-the-scenes deals. The members of this congress know this.

The question is whether they will do the right thing for their constituents or solely do what they think is right for themselves because their dear leader asked.

Every person has a line they won't cross. My question to each one of you is this: What is your line? Do you really think the baffoon in office won't turn against you too if he asks that you cross it and you refuse? He could care less about any of you.

Look at your coworker Ted Cruz: publically humiliated multiple times over, yet still cowers down to Trump.

Redistricting this state is far more than the 2026 midterms. Approving redistricting in the middle of the decade-- and for no valid reason-- is saying that you are ok with all the things Trump & his goons stand for. You can't think on your own and will blindly follow this man in to the pits of hell. That is what your actions will portray. Good luck when your seat is up for grabs.
