Message:

I call upon the Texas Republican Congressional representatives to give up their pandering to Trump over redistricting our state in order to bolster his authoritarian grip on our country. You all swore oaths to uphold and defend the Constitution and your blind allegiance to Trump effectively shreds that document.

To continue pursuing this plan to silence the voices of so many Texas citizens turns a blind eye to the trauma and grief of the families affected by the catastrophic flooding in early July that this special session was originally called to address. Shame on each and every one of you for participating in this travesty and for violating your oath of office. The only ethical option for you is to renounce the redistricting effort and address the needs of our Hill Country neighbors- or resign your office in disgrace.

Respectfully,
Dr. Rhonda Cunningham
