Message:

Gerrymandering Texas will not allow the population that you serve to be properly represented. If you have to pick and choose who you want to count toward your seat, city block by city block, perhaps you aren't fit for office. Stop putting effort into whose vote counts and more effort into helping this state. There are so many better things you should be doing with your time than trying to rig the system in your favor. Maybe focus on our energy grid crisis instead. Only 6 months before snow storm season.
