Message:

Please vote no on redistricting. We just had redistricting in 2021 due to the census. Republicans in Texas are the ones who read through the map in 2021. There is absolutely no reason to redraw the map mid decade. The only reason that y'all are doing this is because Donald Trump asked you to so that he could have more Republicans in Congress than we currently have. He is not your constituent. I am your constituent, my neighbors are your constituents, my adult children are your constituents, my mother is your constituent. The people all across this state are your constituents. Donald Trump does not live here. Donald Trump is the president. He is not your constituent. This is not okay.
