Message:

I think redistricting to appease the president is ridiculous. It goes against everything this country stands for. We should be representing our people fairly already. We are gerrymandered to hell and back and it is unfair that in my district the people in New Braunfels, San Marcos and parts of Austin are represented by the same person as me. We all have undoubtedly different concerns. It doesn't make sense that we would be represented by the same person we need to be fairly represented. We need to be fairly distracted. There needs to be change. There needs to be new districts but it needs to be done fairly and honestly and bipartisanly.
