Sen. Kelly Hancock Announces District 9 Mobile Office Hours – Jan. 2018

Senate staff available to assist area residents with state agency issues in Hurst, Fort Worth

North Richland Hills, TX - Today, Texas State Senator Kelly Hancock announced the January 2018 Mobile Office Hours schedule for Senate District 9. The program is an effort to assist local residents who need help resolving an issue with a state government agency.

“One of the most important roles of our office is to help the 800,000-plus constituents of Senate District 9 cut through red tape when they have a problem with a state agency,” said Sen. Hancock. “Our casework team is committed to helping you find the answers you need.”

Examples of state agency casework include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Child support collection (Office of the Texas Attorney General)
- Handgun licensing (Texas Department of Public Safety)
- Insurance or utility complaints (Texas Department of Insurance / Public Utility Commission)
- State employee retirement benefits (Employee / Teacher Retirement Systems)
