Statement by Senator Borris L. Miles on the Northeast Houston District Office Burglary

Early this morning, staff discovered there was a break-in at Senator Miles' Northeast district office, located on Lyons Avenue. Staff immediately reported the burglary and is cooperating with the Houston Police Department. Three computers and three monitors were stolen.

"I am thankful that my staff is safe, and the office was vacant when the burglary occurred. My team has been in communication with the State IT Support Center regarding the stolen equipment. They have assured us that all important information and data is saved on a private state network drive and is safe from being accessed."

Keep the Faith, Keep the Fight!
