Statement by Senator Borris L. Miles on Congressman Elijah Cummings

"Today, we lost a giant. Congressman Elijah Cummings was one of the most ardent champions for poor and minority communities. As a member of the US House, he rose through the Democratic ranks, became a steadfast leader, a fighter against injustice and voice for the voiceless. He was a pioneer in politics and paved the way for other Black leaders to rise. I am humbled to stand on his shoulders. Through his example, I learned how to be a servant of the community. My condolences to Congressman Cummings' family, his district and all who loved him."

Keep the Faith, Keep the Fight!
