MEDIA ADVISORY: Senator Molly Cook to Announce “Nurse, First” Legislative Agenda & District Priorities

WHAT: Senator Molly Cook (D-Houston) will hold a press conference on the 60-day bill filing deadline, Friday, March 14, to announce her legislative agenda for the 89th Legislative Session.

Senator Cook will outline legislative priorities shaped by her experience in the emergency department and the advocacy of Senate District 15 constituents. The agenda takes a public health approach and focuses on these key pillars:

- Access to healthcare
- Safe homes and infrastructure
- Clean environment
- Opportunity
- Belonging and connection
- Healthy and fair systems

WHEN: Friday, March 14, 2025, at 1:00 PM CST

WHERE: Texas State Capitol, Senate Press Conference Room (Room 2E.9).

The press conference will also be live-streamed via webinar [here], allowing Senate District 15 constituents to ask questions. Media members are invited to attend, and there will be time for questions.

For media inquiries or to RSVP for the press conference, please email Daphne Alcala at daphne.alcala@senate.texas.gov. Reporters may also submit questions in advance for the closing Q&A session.
