COVID-19 Vaccination Sites
Visit the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention' (CDC) webpage to find a COVID-19 vaccine provider near you. You may also visit the Department of State Health Services' (DSHS) Vaccination Hub Providers page to find a vaccine hub near you and learn how to register.

The Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) is working closely with the CDC in responding to COVID-19 outbreaks. For more information about COVID-19 prevention, updated health recommendations, and DSHS' guidance for opening Texas, visit https://www.dshs.state.tx.us/coronavirus/.

- As of May 21, 2021, everyone age 12 and older is now eligible to receive the COVID-19 vaccine in Texas. Details can be found here.
- To receive the vaccine at the Fair Park operations site, appointments are strongly encouraged to speed up the process. Click here to schedule your vaccine appointment at Fair Park.
- To register for the vaccine over the phone, you may dial 1-855-IMMUNE9 (855-466-8639). The hotline hours 7am-7pm, Monday through Friday. English and Spanish call takers are available.
- The vaccine is free of charge. For people with health insurance, your insurance will cover any administration fee charged by the provider. Questions about citizenship status are not asked.

The Texas COVID-19 Expert Vaccine Allocation Panel is responsible for developing vaccine allocation strategies as recommendations to the Texas Commissioner of Health.

The Federal Retail Pharmacy Program for COVID-19 vaccination was launched in collaboration with the federal government, pharmacy partners, and states and territories to increase access to COVID-19 vaccination across the United States. To read more about the program and obtain a list of participating pharmacies in our state, click here.

COVID-19 Test Sites
Texas Department of State Health Services has created an interactive map of all drive thru COVID-19 testing sites across the state. The map can be found here.

- Testing and/or screening criteria may vary depending on the type of COVID-19 test and provider. For more information about the different types of tests for COVID-19 and things to consider when looking for a public drive-thru testing site, click here.

Health Insurance
If you have lost your employer-sponsored health coverage, there are some options to obtain health insurance coverage. The Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) published a helpful guide about your health insurance options.

The Texas Rent Relief Program is providing emergency rental assistance and utility bill assistance for qualifying Texas tenants and landlords who have been impacted by the global pandemic. Visit TexasRentRelief.com or call 833-989-7368.
  - Who Can Qualify? Qualifying households must be at or below 80% of the area median income as well as meet other criteria listed on their website.
  - Landlords are encouraged to apply on behalf of tenants, who must co-sign the application.
  - Priority Applications: Priority will be given to applications from the following groups:
    - Eligible households that have filled out a Texas Eviction Diversion Program (TEDP) application have the highest priority level for being reviewed.
    - For applications received during the first 21 days the program was open, beginning on March 8, 2021, priority is given to the following:
      - Eligible households with income at or below the 50% area median income.
      - Eligible households where one or more members are currently unemployed and have been for at least 90 days prior to the date of application for assistance.
(Note: Federal guidelines require the prioritization of these populations.)

- Dallas County has a tenant helpline and email address for tenants who have been evicted or who are pending eviction. *Please leave a voicemail or email them with your name, address and phone number. The hotline and email account are monitored by the Dallas County Unincorporated Services Department: Tenant hotline@dallascounty.org / 214-653-6563 or 1-833-743-0072.
  - Prior to contacting the hotline, residents are being advised of the following:
    - Tenants engaged in criminal activity or causing an imminent threat to health and safety may be subject to eviction prior to the aforementioned date.
    - Tenants maintain responsibility for paying their rent.
    - Tenants are encouraged to contact their landlord and make sure they are aware when eviction moratoriums are in place.
    - When having difficulty paying rent, tenants should attempt to make payments and/or establish a payment schedule with their landlord.
  - Once you have taken the above steps and for all other tenants, if you have been evicted or notified of a pending eviction, notify the Tenant Hotline by email or phone: Tenant hotline@dallascounty.org / 214-653-6563 or 1-833-743-0072.

- If you don’t have enough money to pay, contact your lender or landlord immediately. Help includes:

Help for Small Business Owners

Federal Financial Resources
If COVID-19 has created a cash flow emergency for your business, you may be able to obtain an emergency loan from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) through a program created specifically to address these circumstances. There are three (3) primary programs available through the SBA and the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act established several new temporary programs to address the COVID-19 outbreak.

- Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) Emergency Advance – The EIDL program is designed to provide economic relief to businesses that are currently experiencing a temporary loss of revenue due to COVID-19. The SBA is currently accepting new COVID-19 EIDL applications from all qualified small businesses, including agricultural businesses, and nonprofit organizations.

- Shuttered Revenue Operators Grant – This grant was established by the Economic Aid to Hard-Hit Small Businesses, Nonprofits, and Venues Act, and amended by the American Rescue Plan Act. The program includes over $16 billion in grants to shuttered venues, to be administered by SBA's Office of Disaster Assistance. Eligible applicants may qualify for grants equal to 45% of their gross revenue, with the maximum amount available for a single grant award of $10 million.

- SBA Debt Relief – The SBA will automatically pay the principal, interest, and fees of current 7(a), 504, and microloans for a period of six months. The SBA will also automatically pay the principal, interest, and fees of new 7(a), 504, and microloans issued prior to September 27, 2020.

For a list of small business grants programs, click here.

- Visit an SBA Local Office – SBA District Offices offer counseling, training and business development to help you start and grow your business.

- The U.S. Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship has a webpage dedicated to resources available for small businesses and entrepreneurs. Learn more here.

- Small Business Administration has information and guidance for small businesses on the different loan resources available.

- Department of Treasury has a webpage dedicated to benefits offered through the American Rescue Plan Act.

State Financial Resources

Shared Work Program – As an alternative to layoffs, the TWC is encouraging employers to enroll in the Shared Work program. A voluntary program, it was developed as a way to help Texas employers and employees withstand a business slowdown, such as occurred due to COVID-19. Under this program, an employer can supplement an employee’s lost wages because of reduced hours worked with partial unemployment benefits. Learn more here.

The Product Development and Small Business Incubator Fund (PDSBI) is a Texas economic program. The fund provides asset-backed financing to companies doing business in Texas through loans with competitive lending rates. Loans can be amortized up to the life of the asset. More information on the loans can be found here.
Loan and Grant Options

Dallas’ Small Business Development Financial Institutions (CDFIs) have developed COVID-19 loan products:

- Lift Fund: Have a number of loan options available to small business owners. Learn more here.
- PeopleFund: Their website features a number of loan programs available to assist small business owners. Learn more here.

Alliance Lending Corporation can provide fixed-rate loans to for-profit, owner-occupied businesses across the state. More information, including contact numbers, can be found on the organization’s website.

Carrollton Business Owners – Economic Development Staff is available by phone at 972-466-3299 or by email at ecodev@cityofcarrollton.com to assist local businesses and offer guidance. Learn more here. Additional resources for businesses can be found here.
